

PRESS RELEASE, June 2014

ACTUARIS International, European leader in consulting services and actuarial software becomes ADDACTIS Worldwide.

ADDACTIS Worldwide addresses the needs of the insurance profession through its innovative strategy and the reliability of its professional software packages.

- ADD because we are constantly on a mission to add value to your activity.
- ACTIS makes reference to our roots in the actuarial world and our passion for actionable solutions.
- Worldwide because we are committed to international development.

A unique approach in Europe

ADDACTIS Worldwide is the only European – based consultant actuary to provide both expert consulting and software.

As the European Insurance sector is facing the implementation of Solvency 2, clients expect both:

- Comprehensive understanding of the directive, its concepts and how to apply it to local conditions.
- Software packages that comply with the needs of traceability and productivity of actuarial works.

A proven recipe!

Innovative solutions and expert actuaries are the cornerstones of ADDACTIS Worldwide ongoing success, with over 100 clients in Europe.
